Agriculture In 49th State

Alaskan Visits City

By Jay P. Grimes
As Interviewed
By Dwayne Jekel

It looks like the cold spell blew more into Milam County than just freezing weather. Along with icy chicken water and frozen pipes came a couple of visitors from Texas A & M College.

Dwayne Jekel, whose home is in Cameron, and Jay P. Grimes from Seward, Alaska, are here working with J. D. Moore and Pat Garner of the County Agent's office. Their weeklong visit is part of their course in Extension Work being taught by Dr. Ben Cook at A & M.

Since Alaska has become a state we are hearing more and more about that big country up North. Some of the things we hear are true and some are blown up far out of proportion. It might be interesting to listen to some questions about Alaska from young Jekel and the answers he got.

JEKEL: "Jay, is there very much farming going on in Alaska now?"

GRIMES: "Well, Dwayne, right now agriculture is a $3,000,000 per year business in Alaska. About half of this comes from dairy farming with potatoes and poultry running second and third."

J: "What about beef cattle?"

CONSIDERABLE BEEF

G: "There are many areas in Alaska that are ideal for cattle raising. Beef ranching has already been started in several places. Of course they are only large enough to keep up with local use, the same as with all other farming enterprises. Beside beef, there are a couple of sheep ranches and some of the farmers in the Matanuska Valley raise hogs."

J: "Do they raise vegetables or do you have to ship them in?"

G: "A lot of our produce has to be shipped in, Dwayne, but Alaskans raise quite a few truck crops. These are mostly root crops like carrots, radishes, turnips and the like. In the Matanuska Valley they claim to grow the biggest cabbage in the world. I believe it must be true because I've seen a good many heads that weighed over 30 pounds. Raspberries, cranberries, blueberries, huckleberries and strawberries are all important crops too. The moist, cool climate is ideal for berries. As a matter of fact, the strawberries grown in Haines are so plentiful the townspeople hold a Strawberry Festival every year."

J: "What is the biggest problem farmers run into up there?"

WEATHER 2ND PROBLEM

G: "As strange as it sounds, it's not the climate that gives the most trouble. Economics are the biggest hazard the farmer has to face. Before he can harvest his first crop the farmer has to make a big investment in his house, barn, equipment and stock."

J: "Do you mean to say that the land is expensive? I'd heard it was pretty cheap."

G: "Not necessarily. Land that is already cleared is pretty high, but if you can wade through the necessary red tape you can get land from the public domain that is very cheap. Where the expense comes is in clearing the land. It usually takes from $150 to $200 per acre to clear it."

J: "From what I've heard, part of the land is frozen year-round. How can you grow crops on land like that?"

G: "That's true enough when you get far enough north and the few places where there is permafrost. But, the ground thaws in most places about late March or early April and the growing season averages about 90 days."

J: "If the growing season is that short, how can you get a crop made?"

G: "The temperature is about the same as it is here in April and May. Beside that, we have a lot of daylight hours during the growing season. In late June the sun rises about 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning and doesn't set until around 10 or 11 o'clock at night."

J: "Well, what about this six months day and six months night we hear about?"

FEW 'LONG NIGHTS'

G: "It's like this. We do have long days in the middle of the summer and long nights in December and January. But until you get North of Fairbanks there never is any time when there is no night or no daylight. Even that far north there are only a few days out of the year when the sun shines 24 hours or it's dark for more than 24 hours at a time."

J: "I've heard you can get free land up there. Is that true?"

G: "Sure thing. There is just one catch, all of the good land near the towns or roads has been taken up. There is still good land that can be homesteaded but it is inaccessible or not suited for farming."

J: "One last question, what do you think is in the future for agriculture in Alaska?"

G: "Agriculture is one of the great promises and treasures of our frontier, Dwayne. As the population increases and research meets the special needs and regionally varied conditions, agriculture will grow. This is the way the high costs of living can be lowered and the 49th state will prosper."

ALASKAN VISITS MILAM — Dwayne Jekel, left of Cameron, and Jay Grimes, of Seward, Alaska, both seniors at Texas A&M College, visited Cameron on a week's field review of agriculture in Milam County. In the accompanying story, Grimes describes some aspects of the 49th State's agriculture, comparing the same commodities produced and problems faced by farmers in Central Texas. -- Staffoto

Mother's March Planned Monday

POLICE CONTINUE TO INVESTIGATE CITY HALL THEFT

City police Wednesday were continuing to investigate the theft of $242 found missing Tuesday morning from the walk - in vault at City Hall.

Mayor Coleman Duncum said Wednesday there were known suspects and that every possible effort was being made to solve the case.

He called a special City Council meeting Wednesday morning to review the possibilities of how the money turned up missing and procedures to prevent reoccurence of a similar incident.

Police Chief Elvin Hoskins said the money was found missing early Tuesday morning when the vault door was opened.

He said the money apparently was taken after city officers had closed at 5 p. m. Monday.

The thief apparently overlooked $148 in police fines which had been placed in the safe, Chief Hoskins said.

Fingerprint expert Jack Mercer, of the Department of Public Safety took two sets of prints from the money tray inside the safe Tuesday morning.

Mayor Duncum said an audit was scheduled to ascertain exactly how much money was missing.

Chief Hoskins was out of town Wednesday working on the case. He questioned several persons Tuesday, including city employees.

A number of persons knew the combination to the safe, Hoskins reported.

The safe was locked when the office closed, officials said. An office employee opened the safe Tuesday morning in the presence of other city employees and discovered the theft.

Paid Your Poll Tax?

Area Totals Noted

About 2,200 poll taxes had been paid in Milam County and 475 at City Hall by Wednesday morning, according to officials at Milam Courthouse and City Hall. Poll tax deadline is midnight Thursday, January 31.

Tax Collector Valter White estimated that about 2,200 poll taxes had been paid, including those sold in substations at Rockdale and Thorndale.

Poll tax totals for the two reporting agencies were up from 309 at City Hall and about 1900 at Milam Courthouse last week.

Poll tax payments following the deadline in 1962 showed about 3,600 paid in the county and about 700 at City Hall.

No county or state - wide elections are scheduled this year. Only city council or school district elections will be held in the Milam area.

Highest poll tax payments in recent years were in 1960, a presidential election year, when 4,893 were paid, according to county records.

Officials estimate that about one - third of the eligible voters in Milam County are exempt from poll tax payment. Exemptions are allowed for those just reaching the age of 21 or who are 60 or more.

A young man who demonstrated strong aptitudes in journalism at a tender age is doing well at Sam Houston State College.

A visitor at The Herald last week, freshman Robert Mann gave every indication that he liked college life or at least the journalism part liked him; he was among a number of youngsters visiting Cameron between college semesters.

Robert is cracking out some top grades and is enthusiastic about his college work. He was enthusiastic in sports writing for more than four years at The Herald, coming into the paper at a precocious 13 because he wanted to learn to write sports.

We remember him well. Told he would have to turn in his stories in type - written form, young Robert went to his Dad's typewriter and taught himself how to type. In a few weeks, the typed copy started coming in.

103 - 103 - 103

His is the kind of grit young people need; and of course older people need it too.

Another thing about young Robert, whose competitive desire has taught him a good bit of humility, is his unique concentration.

When he was a junior at Yoe High School, he entered the extemporaneous speaking contest at district. Robert had not been a public speaker. Yet when the speeches were over, Robert had won his first extemp contest, the while defeating the previous year's winner. Not bad, not bad.

103 - 103 - 103

Something of a similar nature took place at Sam Houston this past semester. Robert was the only freshman in an upperclassman journalism course. You probably guessed it. Out of some 30 students, Robert was among the top three.

Pickup Turns Up 5 Months Later

Five months ago Lewis Krenek started to go to dinner. But when he stepped outside of the Safeway store, where he works, he didn't see his pickup. And he didn't see it again until last week.

His Chevrolet pickup was taken from the Safeway parking lot August 17, 1962 and a stolen car from Killeen was left in its place. Checking by local police officers failed to turn up any leads.

So Krenek started to look for his pickup himself. "I traveled over 3,000 miles looking for it," he said.

And he often answered the question "Have you found your pickup?" with a hopeful "Not yet." I guess that people have asked me that question a thousand times," Krenek said.

It would seem hard for a pickup to stay missing if it had not been changed. But when it was stolen it was left on a Palestine, Texas Santa Fe parking lot and cars were there 24 hours a day. A lot of workers drove pickups and it wasn't unusual for the pickup to go unnoticed.

But one day a Palestine city patrolman got suspicious and called the station to check on the vehicle. It turned out that it was Krenek's missing pickup.

Krenek had the car checked over and drove it back to Cameron. The windows had been left open. Rain and other bad weather had ruined the seats and rusted the interior.

He had just painted it a few weeks before it had been stolen and the paint was already peeling off. A shotgun was missing from the pickup when it was found. It is still missing.

Last August the suspect was noticed as he walked across a Palestine street from the parking lot to a bus station where he stole another car. It was after he had stolen a car at Henderson that he was caught speeding near Marshall.

Pvt. Ronald K. Snyder of Fort Hood, confessed that the car he was driving was stolen at Henderson. And the soldier is charged with the theft of another car at Palestine. He was given a two-year suspended sentence for the Henderson theft. He is out on bond for the alleged theft of the second car in Palestine.

The 19 - year - old, 2nd Armored Division man, has also admitted to a car theft at Killeen. He left the car in Cameron when he took the pickup. Charges are pending here. Snyder has been transferred to the County Jail, according to Chief Elvin Hoskins.

Krenek said that the pickup was not damaged except the interior was ruined and the engine rocker arms were burned out. Krenek thinks that he lost over $200 on the pickup.

All this trouble happened because he left the keys in the pickup. "It won't happen again," he vowed.

Information Program . . .

FB To Hear Valuation Talk

Next scheduled information meeting on the proposed Cameron School District equalization program is before the Milam County Farm Bureau, 7 p. m. Thursday, Feb. 7, according to Supt. Charles Zeigler.

Maburn Harris, general manager of Southwestern Appraisal Co., of Dallas and Stamford, will discuss procedures in the proposed equalization program with members of the Milam Farm Bureau at the Texan's Western Room.

Supt. Zeigler also announced that a representative of the school administration will be at the meeting of the Cameron Parent - Teachers Association later that night to answer any questions on the equalization program.

Zeigler said reaction to the proposed equalization program has been favorable thus far. "I am pleased with the favorable comments we have been receiving," Zeigler said.

"We are getting comments to the effect that if used wisely the additional revenue from an equalization program is worthwhile."

NO BUDGET YET

Zeigler said that a budget for uses for any additional local income has not yet been outlined.

School board members met in a called session Tuesday night to review the information program's progress thus far. No action was taken on beginning the program.

Zeigler said the information program will continue into February.

Thus far, information programs to five Cameron groups developed this picture:

Cost of the equalization program, which would take about six months to complete, would be $24,600. It would include charting about 5,300 parcels of property in the 260 - square mile Cameron district, meaning all farms, residences and business property. Valuations would be established on real estate and land, but would not include bank personal property such as household goods.

VALUATION

Property values would be based on replacement cost of the property, measured against a national average of market value and allowing for local differences. Depreciation of buildings would be considered with particular emphasis on considering functional depreciation on older houses.

Land is classified by grade. So is housing or commercial property. Grade of land or classification of housing affect lowering of increasing values.

Cameron District ad valorum taxes now produce 24.1 per cent of District income. State average for local school tax support is 48 per cent. The District tax rate is now $1.50 per $100 valuation, legal limit unless a special State law is invoked to raise the limit to $2.

Harris has said that a 15-15-70 ratio is usually found in valuation programs. He said that 15 per cent of the values will be lowered, 15 per cent will remain about the same and 70 per cent will be increased.

'Long Johns' Now For Your House

COLLEGE STATION — Frigid weather always brings out the long underwear, and people should think about putting long underwear, in the form of insulation, in their houses, says W. S. Allen, extension agricultural engineer.

Allen, housing and building specialist, says that such insulation will contribute much to the comfort of their home. Almost all building materials have some insulation properties, but some are better than others, he adds. A good insulation material retards the flow of heat, is resistant to decay, fire proof, and does not harbor insects and rodents.

Metal foil will help retard the flow of certain kinds of heat and act as an insulation barrier. It is commonly used to reduce the effect of heat radiation and as a vapor barrier, according to the specialist. The use of a vapor barrier is very important, especially where extremely cold winters are common, or there is a great deal of moisture in the warm air inside a building, he adds. The barrier is normally placed on the warm side of the insulation to reduce the possibility of condensation in or on the insulation material.

The insulation can be helpful in the summer as well as during cold spells, Allen says. It serves to keep warm air out as well as in.

Insulation will lower fuel bills for heating and for air conditioning, the specialist notes. These savings should outweigh the cost of insulation, Allen says, not to mention the comfort it will add. He suggests a visit with a building material dealer for information on the type of insulation best suited for your needs.

SPECIAL WEEK — Gov. John B. Connally signs a proclamation designating Feb. 3-9 as "Farm Bureau Week" in Texas. Looking on are Texas Farm Bureau Queen Valdene Garner of Brownfield, TFB Organization Director Millard Shivers of Waco (standing, left) and C. H. DeVaney of Coahoma, president of the state farm organization. The special week marks the beginning of a drive to make 1963 the 11th consecutive year for the state's largest farm organization to hit a new record in membership.

Trousands of entries were submitted in the sweepstakes. Each participant was required to fill in an entry blank from a Purina dealer's store and mail it to Purina headquarters at St. Louis.

Questionnaires Sent Out By VA Office

Veterans, and dependents of deceased veterans, in receipt of non-service pension, and some parents of deceased veterans whose death was the result of service, were sent income questionnaires with the November checks from the Veterans Administration.

These questionnaires are to be filled out and returned to the address shown on the right - hand corner of the form on or before January 31, 1963. Glyndon M. Hague, Manager of the VA Regional Office, Waco, Texas, says his office has received approximately three - fourths of the questionnaires which have been sent.

Many persons have had to wait until the end of the year to fill out the questionnaires due to employment and other reasons. These are reminded that they must return the questionnaires on or befoe January 31, 1963, in order to continue to receive benefits.

"These questionnaires should be filled out completely, being sure that all blanks are completed," Hague says. When filling out the income questionnaires, the monthly payment of non - service pension being received from the Veterans Administration should not be included as income.

RICE OIL

Rice oil, a by - product of the rice industry, has been found to increase milk yields when added to the ration of dairy animals. The Texas Agricultural Experiment Station has reported that tests conducted at the Tyler substation showed an increase of .9 (nine-tenths) pound more milk per cow per day from cows receiving the ration containing 1 percent rice oil. On the average, $1.00 spent for rice oil returned $3.50 through increased milk yield.

'62 Bond Sales Total 142.6 Per Cent In Milam County

December Savings Bonds sales in Milam County were $60,795 according to Henry Siebman, chairman of the Milam County Savings Bonds Committee. During 1962 the citizens of this county purchased $541,997, which represents 142.6 per cent of the 1962 sales goal of $380,000.

U. S. Treasury records disclose that the number of individual bonds issued during 1962 set a five - year record with over 73 million individual bonds issued during the year. The number of $50 bonds purchased was the highest amount since the war years, and the sale of $25 bonds was at a five - year record.

"The increased sales of the smaller denomination bonds are a direct result of the Freedom Bond Drive, when over one million Americans workers enrolled in the Payroll Savings Plan for bond buying. This was a 15 per cent increase over 1961", Chairman Seibman reported.

Number Must Go On Tax Returns

Taxpayers were reminded today by A. P. Andrews administrative officer of Internal Revenue at Temple that under a recent law, they are required to enter their identifying "Tax account" numbers on 1962 income tax returns filed in 1963.

For the individual, this is his social security number, or similar number issued for tax reporting purposes if he has never had employment under social security coverage.

Use of identifying numbers is essential to electronic processing of returns, now being installed nationwide by the Internal Revenue Service, and failure to show account number may delay any refund due.

Taxpayers still needing an account number should apply at once to the District Director's office, or to the District Office of the Social Security Administration, or by writing to Internal Revenue Service, Post Office Box 231, Galtimore, Maryland.

Rural Accidents Total 595 In '62

BRYAN — Sgt. Paul Allen, Supervisor of the Texas Highway Patrol in the Bryan area released the Brazos, Burleson, Lee, Milam and Robertson Counties' Rural Traffic Accident Summary for the year 1962.

For the year 1962 Sgt. Allen's Rural Traffic Accident Records show a total of 595 traffic accidents resulting in the death of 26 people, injury to 322 people and a combined property damage of $336,656.

For the year 1962 Milam County recorded a total of 162 traffic crashes resulting in the death of 7 people, injury to 85 people and the combined property damage amounted to $60,907.

Delay Pruning Of Frozen Shrubs

COLLEGE STATION — Don't cut back damaged shrubs that have been defoliated or had their leaves browned by the recent record-breaking low temperatures, advises J. J. Franklin, estension landscape horturist. Chances are good he adds, that only the leaves were damaged. However, he doesn't rule out the possibility of damage to twigs, main branches or even the roots of the less hardy species or varieties.

An immediate examination of the trunks may reveal heavy damage for splitting often occurs. A fingernail test on young twigs may reveal no fresh tissue beneath the bark and this indicates damage, he says. It is easier to evaluate winter damage in the spring, after new growth starts, he adds, but even then weakened branches often put out new growth which later dies.

Corrective pruning can begin as soon as it can be assumed that new growth is lacking or will remain very sparse. Cut out the dead or weak wood well below the damaged area, leaving only strong growth, Franklin advises. Do this, he adds, after growth has started in the spring.

The best treatment, in addition to proper pruning for winter - sick shrubs, is to keep them well - watered and fed moderately, he says. A muich of leaf mold, peatmoss or other organic material will insure better plant health. Loosen the soil to a depth of half an inch and then apply a two - inch layer of mulch over the soil covering an area slightly beyond the branch spread of the shrub, Franklin advises.

SWEETPOTATOES

Sweetpotatoes are a special - feature on the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Plentiful Foods list for February. Colorful sweetpotato dishes -- from main fare to dessert -- make this an ideal food. Growers in some production areas, including East Texas, have supplies on hand totaling almost twice normal amounts for this season.

Milam ASCS Report

Signup under the 1963 feed grain program will begin February 1 and continue through March 22. In an effort to familiarize farmers with the program, a number of meetings are being scheduled throughout the county, according to Alva E. Sanders, office manager of the Milam County Agricultural, Stabilization and Conservation Service. The 1963 program will be explained in detail at the meetings and anyone wishing to ask questons will have an opportunity to do so. Farmers will be notified by mail as to when meetings will be held in their respective community.

Sanders further advised that notices of base acreages, yields, and payment rates for individual farms are being mailed this week to all Milam County farmers who are eligible to participate in this year's feed grain program.

Letters To The Editor

January 24, 1963
523 Anita St., No. 11
Chula Vista, California

Dear Editor:

This is to notify you that I am moving, so will you please send my next subscription of the Cameron Herald to the above address. I am Mrs. R. W. Maguire, II; to clear things up – the old address was 235 W. 13th St., Apt. 6, National City, Calif.; And now it will be 523 Anita St., No. 11, Chula Vista, California.

I enjoy the paper very much, but I do have one criticism which is no fault of yours. The paper is about the only means I have of knowing what is going on, so I enjoy the society sections and personals. But there are not very many personals put in the paper, so maybe somehow you could encourage the people to call in things. I remember when I was home I thought this was silly, putting things into the paper such as someone being home for the weekend from college, or someone from out of town visiting their family, as living there I knew it anyway. But now being so far from home I enjoy reading these things, its a feeling of being a little closer. I get my issue of the Cameron Herald every Monday, and I eagerly look for the mail on Mondays. So maybe in some way, perhaps an editorial you could encourage people to put in the paper more personals which people far from home taking the paper would really enjoy reading.

Thanks for listening to my peeve, but as I've said, I realize its no fault of yours. Take for example the people of Clarkson, Milano, Jones Prairie, they always have a lot of news in the paper, but I don't know any of them so it doesn't really interest me; But I think the people of Cameron should do something like that too, after all the paper is printed there and they would have no trouble or effort to put more in the paper.

Wrote more than I intended. But will now close. Thank you and good luck.

Sincerely,
Mrs. R. W. Maguire, II

Witnesses told investigating officers that a truck driven by Leon McNeal of Greenwood, Ala. had slowed to make a left turn into a service station. The ambulance ran up behind the truck and swerved to the right to avoid a rear - end collision.

The ambulance ran into a ditch where the highway is under construction and overturned.

Mrs. Gary Dale Welch

Duncum - Welch Vows Repeated Here Sat.

Miss Mary Alice Duncum of Cameron became the bride of Gary Dale Welch of Houston at 4 p. m. Saturday at the Church of Christ in Cameron. Mr. Louie Welch of Houston, father of the groom, read the double ring wedding vows before an altar banked with bronze mums. A white kneeling rail was placed at the front of the altar completing the decorations for the nuptial vows.

A tracery of iridescent Paillettes and pearls further accented the neckline. The fullskirt swept into a chapel train. Her floor length veil was of French illusion.

The bride carried a cascade of white gardenias atop a white Bible, which was carried by the groom's mother in her wedding. A fragment of the groom's paternal great grandmother's wedding band was fused into the bride's wedding band. A three-tiered embossed wedding cake and a crystal punch bowl were placed at opposite ends of the table. Miss Lela Monroe of LaMarque served the cake and Miss Sharon Laywell of Cameron presided at the punch bowl.

School spirit has been good at the basketball games as the students have stayed thru the games with the Yoemen. The Swing Band under Francis Cox is at every game and the Pep Squad and cheerleaders are at every home game.

There is also a small group of followers at every game out of town.

Some of the most exciting basketball games have been the Jr. Hi games where there is a lot of desire in the boys and the teams really get after the game.

Several of these games have not been won until the last few seconds of play.

And the Jr. Hi teams are both in the running for the district crown. The seventh grade is tied for second place and the 8th grade is tied with Caldwell for the lead.

The 8th grade lost only one district game and that was Hearne. But Monday night they went to Hearne and came back to win the game.

-sh-

Both the 7th and 8th graders are in the Lions Club Jr. Hi tournament at Rosebud this weekend. And they stand a good chance of coming out on top in the standings.

In the tournament are Lott, Academy, Marlin, 7th and 8th graders, Cameron 7th and 8th graders, Milano and Rosebud.

The Cameron 8th graders play at 5:15 on Thursday and the 7th graders play at 6:30 p. m. that night. Both teams meet Merlin.

The off season program for the athletes not playing basketball is showing fine signs of progress as the boys gain strength and agility. The boys are boxing, wrestling, tumbling and other building exercises.

They put in a quick ten minutes on the isometric bars and then go thru the program for the day.

Improvements in the boys are easily noticed and they are gaining the quickness they will need in any sport.

Joe Davis led the Yoemen with 21 points on ten field goals. Jimmy McClerran was next with 18 points.

Dwain Vincent was high for the losers with 26 points. Lynn McGuire was next with 17 points.

At the half time the Toy Yoemen played an intersquad game. These are the sixth graders that play at every home game for the Yoemen.

Don Mitchell had seven points and Dennis Woodum had one.

The Yoe - Yoes led 17-13 at the half. Cameron was ahead all the way as the Yoe - Yoes picked off the Hearne passes to score on a fast break.

Seventh Graders Drop Hearne

The 7th graders held on to an early lead as they won over Hearne 20-15 in a game played at Hearne Monday night.

The 7th graders led 12-4 at the half and then Hearne started to come back but Cameron was able to stop the attack.

Poll Tax Deadline Near . . .

This is the last day for payment of poll taxes, January 31.

During an off - year in elections, interest in voting normally wanes. No national or state elections are due. And the only county elections would be for the County School Board.

City and school district elections, however, are held annually in Cameron, and most other incorporated communities and independent school districts.

A new regulation this year requires that payment of poll taxes be completed by midnight of January 31, officials report.

These things considered, the privilege of voting depends on the payment of the poll tax. Once an election is past, and the representatives of school board or city council are elected, there is little basis for disapproval of their public acts if contesting votes have not been cast.

We urge you to pay your poll tax by the deadline to insure your privilege of voting in the elections of 1963.

Pensions For WWII – Korean Vets, Widows

Today, more than two years after the law was passed, the Veterans Administration said many widows and orphans of World War II and Korean Conflict veterans who were not disabled are apparently unaware they are eligible for pensions under certain conditions.

Glyndon Hague, Manager of the VA Regional Office i Waco, said that before July 1, 1960, widows and children of World War II or Korean servicemen were entitled to pensions only if the deceased veteran had a service - connected disability at the time of his death.

Beginning on that date, the VA Manager said, Congress provided pensions for these widows and orphans. It is no longer necessary for the veteran to have had a service - connected disability.

The income limit is $1,800 yearly for a widow and $3,000 annually for a widow with a child or children. The income limit for orphans is $1,800 yearly, exclusive of earned income.

The pensions range from $25 to $60 monthly for widows. For each child, $15 a month is added. The pension for orphans is $35 monthly.

Hauge said this benefit may be payable to a veteran's child or children even though the widow is not entitled to the pension because she remarried or her income or net worth exceeds certain limits.

The pension is paid if the deceased veteran was discharged under conditions other than dishonorable and had 90 or more days of service, or was discharged sooner for a service - connected disability.

Many a hunter has shot himself, cause he relied too heavily on the safety catch on his shotgun.

Safeties on shotguns are apt to give a sportsman a false sense of security. All the safety snap does is block the trigger so they can't be pulled.

Cotten Examines Flight Records

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — Rep. James Cotten of Weatherford -- one of the most militant members of the 58th Legislature -- is examining the flight records of state - owned planes.

Cotten is concerned about what he considers frivolous use of state property ..... namely, three airplanes which the Department of Public Safety is supposed to use for transporting officers to distant scenes of crimes, or to attend law enforcement meetings without missing too many duty hours.

Cotten says he has discovered these planes have been used: For rushing a representative home for the weekend; for ferrying a state senator home to make a speech; for transporting the state librarian to a monument on the coast "to get ideas on how to set up displays."

Cotten wants to know "How much did these junkets cost?"

State pilots haven't answered, but Austin airport authorities guess the cost at $26 to $75 an hour--depending on which plane is used--plus pilot's time.

Now the representative from Weatherford is talking about grounding all passengers except those who are entitled to use state planes for necessary, official business.

He plans to introduce a bill that would forbid legislators from hitch - hiking rides aboard the planes unless they were on official business.

PARENTAL SUPPORT BILL

A bill which would make relatives responsible for the welfare of the needy old people has been introduced by Rep. J. Collier Adams of Lubbock.

Patterned after the "Montana Method," the bill calls for contributions to the support of citizens on Old Age Assistance rolls and disabled persons receiving state aid.

The "responsible" relatives could be the assistance recipient's parent, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, spouse, brother, sister, son, daughter or grandparent.

Proposed law would make a person earning $201 a month and supporting only himself pay $5 a month toward a relative's care. If he makes $376 a month and was supporting two people, he'd have to pay $20.

"I just believe," Representative Adams said, "that the commandment, 'Honor thy mother and father' should be upheld." He said he also figures that the most needy people could get larger benefit checks if others received semi-support from their families.

BRUCELLOSIS TESTS

Dr. John L. Wilbur Jr., U. S. Department of Agriculture's animal disease eradication division, reported that public stockyards inspection last month revealed brucellosis infection ratios of 1 to 11 per cent.

High ratio was revealed at the Fort City Stockyards in Houston. An infection ratio of only one per cent was found at San Antonio's Union Stockyards. Fort Worth Stockyards' ratio was 3.7 per cet.

NO EMERGENCY

The man who holds the state purse strings for the House of Represenatatives said he sees no urgency requiring fast legislative action to bolster the screwworm eradication program by $1,400,000.

Chairman Bill Heatly of the House Apropriations Committee said the conclusion of a recent screw worm eradication project hearing is that livestock producers have raised enough money to keep the program going until March 1.

Meanwhile, an interim study committee headed by Sen. Culp Krueger of El Campo s rongly recommended that the $1,400,000 be appropriated now, and another $1,600,000 be appropriated for the year beginning September 1.

The would make up the $3,000,000 members of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation have been seeking from the state.

FIRST APPOINTMENT

Gov. John Connally's first appointment act was to name Judge Louis T. Holland Jr. of Montague as Presiding Judge of the 8th Administrative Judicial District.

Judge Holland will succeed Judge Jack M. Langdon of Fort Worth.

TRADING STAMP TAX

As an alternate to sending "the cream of business profits to out-of-state trading stamp companies," Rep. Jim Segrest of San Antonio proposed a 10 per cent gross receipts tax on trading stamps.

"Trading stamps are the most hated of all competitive weapons by even those who use them so why not tax such an unhealthy item?" Segrest said.

He said his bill would bring millions to the state treasury as a balance to "some fifty million dollars" taken out of Texas annually by trading stamp companies.

$18,000,000 PLANT SECURED

Governor Connally, who's been determined to make this state a leader in securing new industry, was greatly pleased with the announcement that the Holly Sugar Corporation of Colorado Springs, Colorado, will establish an $18,000,000 sugar beet processing plant in Hereford.

Construction will begin soon, and the 1,700 - acre plant is expected to be in operation by September 1, 1964.

"Establishment of this refinery is a big step toward providing new job opportunities for the citizens of Texas," Governor Connally wired the sugar firm.

COLLEGE HEARINGS SET

House State Affairs Committee--which has been the referral point of about one - third of 200 bills already introduced by the 58th Legislature -- put college upgrading requests first on its agenda.

Bills being heard first are those designed to lend senior status and full state support to San Angelo Junior College and Odessa Junior College, and give full state support to Pan American College at Edinburg.

Sen. Criss Cole of Houston believes the state should keep tabs on all people who raise money for charity.

Many charitable organizations use professional money - raisers to conduct fund campaigns, and Cole proposes that the charities tell Secretary of State Crawford Martin:

1. What sort of deals they've made with their professional money - raisers;

2. What commissions the fund-raisers would get;

3. When solicitations will be held, and what will be done with the money solicited.

Annual reports of licensed organizations would be checked by a certified public accountant. Attorney general would halt the activities of organizations which try to raise cash without registering, unless they are exempt from the act.

FREE FISHING

An easing of fishing license requirements -- aimed at helping unemployed persons on the Gulf Coast -- has been introduced by Rep. Ed J. Harris of Galveston.

Harris proposed that citizens be allowed to fish with rod and reel in their home counties without paying $2.15 for a license. He described fishing in one's own county or from one's own property as a "basic, human right."

PURCHASE PRICE PROPOSED

A bill to raise from $150 to $500 the amount of "emergency purchases" a county can make without advertising for competitive bids has been drafted by Rep. Vernon Beckham of Denison.

Beckham said a county official can't buy a truckload of gasoline or a typewriter without exceeding the $150 limitation enacted in 1921.

Beckham introduced another bill which would raise the maximum to be spent by county commissioners on office buildings or jails in cities other than the county seat, from $150,000 to $200,000.

OIL ALLOWABLE UPPED

Texas Railroad Commission has given oilmen their biggest production raise in many months.

Commission has set the February allowable at 29 per cent of potential.

MEDICAL PRACTICE

Senator Jim Bates of Edinburg has introduced legislation (SB 64) aimed at licensing and regulating non - physician owned and operated clinical laboratories.

"This bill would strengthen the Texas Medical Practice Act," Bates says, "by establishing educational and experience standards as a requirement for licensing by the State Department of Health."

THE OLD PHILOSOPHER

Philosopher Refuses To Discuss Weather, Switches To Television Situation In Africa

Dear editar:

With one Canadian blast of cold air after another coming down in us during the recent weeks, you'd think we'd been sending foreign aid up there and had suddenly stopped, but I've heard so much about the weather lately I don't intend to discuss it.

What I have in mind this week is the television situation in Africa.

According to an article I read in a newspaper last night which I had planned to wrap a water pipe with but never did get around to and it's too late now, television is now showing up in darkest Africa and the people like it, especially Westerns. But the trouble is there aren't many sets in the County. As the article explained, "the reason is simple -- with an average income of less than $100 a year, it is difficult for an African to purchase a TV set, even with time payments."

I don't understand this. I've never seen a budget yet so small a television set couldn't be squeezed out of it, although I'll admit a hundred dollars a year is a mighty small budget.

The trouble with the Africans is that they don't understand high finance. Take the United States. We understand it, Washington expects an income of around 90 billion dollars this year, but it intends to spend a hundred billion.

If Washington can spend 10 billion dollars it doesn't have, why can't an African spent $10 he doesn't have and buy a television set. Although, I'll admit it might be hard to buy a TV set for $10 a year.

To tell you the truth, I don't see how Washington can spend ten billion it doesn't have, but on the other hand I don't see how an African can live on $100 a year. It just must not cost much to operate a car in that country.

Yours faithfully,

J. A.

Congressman Notes Committees Meet To Review Lgislation4

Cong. W. R. Poage reports in his weekly newsletter that four subcommittees of the House Agriculture Committee met for discussions of possible legislation last week, including a milk production bill.

The 11th District Congressman is chairman of sub - committees on livestock and feed grains, conservation and credit and foreign agriculture. Cong. Gathings chairs the cotton sub - committee.

Cong. Poage reports that Cong. Gathings has introduced a bill authorizing the making of equalization payments (in kind) on cotton sold to domestic mills "as we now make on cotton sold to foreign mills."

Cong. Poage says he thinks "this is only fair and that it is essential if we are to keep cotton competitive with synthetics – to say nothing of cotton goods produced abroad."

"As most of you know", he continues, I have long advocated 'direct payments' for cotton. Of course, cotton producers are going to have to contribute to the success of this program by holding down their acreage. In other words, if the taxpayers are to make the price of cotton competitive, the producers must balance the supply with the demand."

He says also that "by so doing, we should be able to raise cotton consumption and, therefore, ultimately raise cotton production."

Cong. Poage also reports that the Agriculture Committee also faces a problem in milk production.

"We are now producing about 7 to 8 per cent more milk than needed," he notes. "It seems to me that we could help by removing the present regulations in Federal Milk Order areas which, in effect, require dairymen to overproduce in other to establish a favorable 'base' for the sale of Class 'A' milk.

He goes on: "In order to get the best possible base, the dairyman produces all of the milk he can during the 'base period.'

After this period, he points out, the dairyman is still set up to produce more milk than he can sell on the fluid market. He is required to sell this 'surplus' at a low price.

"I shall probably introduce a bill on this within the next few days," the Congressman says. "I think it would be much better if our dairymen could get their Class 'A' base without having to produce this unneeded milk."

Watson Files Four New Bills

State Sen. Murray Watson, senator from this district, introduced four additional bills last week and joined as co - author of three others.

He is co - author of a bill to create the Governor's proposed Study Committee for Education Beyond High School, a bill to create a Little Hoover Commission as a means of achieving greater efficiency and economy in State Government, and a proposed constitutional amendment to provide equal rights for women.

The bills Watson introduced would:

1. Base the present motor vehicle sales tax on the trading difference rather than the full purchase price, and fix the rate at 2 per cent instead of the present 1½ per cent.

2. Amend the sales tax law to prevent double - taxing on items that are purchased for re - sale.

3. Exempt an individual who operates a wrecker as an incidental service in business from the law requiring a Railroad Commission permit.

4. Amend the dealer license plate law by defining who can and who cannot obtain dealer plates and thereby stop the present abuses of the law.

Form 1040A For Most Individuals For Simple Filing

"Perhaps you, too, can use the simplified federal income tax Form 1040A", reveals A. P. Andrews, Administrative Officer of Internal Revenue Service, Temple.

Revenue's vast pocket size tax form may be used by individuals with total income of less than $10,000, consisting of wages reported on Form W-2 and not more than $200 in dividends, interest and wages not subject to withholding.

Husband and wife may file a joint 1040A return for '62 if their combined income doesn't exceed the stated limits.

"Taxpayers using Form 1040A automatically claim the standard 10 percent deduction allowed for such personal expenses as contributions interest payments, medical expenses, and such. Taxpayers with allowable deductions for these items in excess of 10 per cent of their income for '62 must use the standard Form 1040, if they wish to claim them," The IRS representative explained.

Taxpayers with incomes under $5,000 may figure their own tax, or have Revenue do the chore. Taxpayers with incomes of $5,000 or more must figure their own tax.

MORE CLOTHING

Frigid weather always brings on the need for more and warmer clothing, and says W. S. Allen, extension agricultural engineer, it also spotlights the value of insulation in the home. A properly insulated home is more comfortable to live in and can be heated in the winter and cooled in the summer on less fuel. He suggests a visit with a local building materials dealer for information on the type of insulation best suited to your needs.

Take your problems to Church this week millions leave them there!

Confused???

In a time of uncertainty and peril for his people, a prophet once wrote "FAITH is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen . . . let us hold fast to the profession of one faith, without wavering." Faith, such as the prophet spoke of, is a potent tonic needed today in a world afflicted with spiritual anemia

How may we all, particularly young couples embarking upon a marriage career, acquire a faith that is the abiding assurance we need? The answer is: by checking our blessings and giving thanks to God for them — for our beautiful country, our homes, our loved ones. Above all we need to say "thanks" for our churches, with doors open — for they are not everywhere. Here we can worship and thank God for friends, for food and for a thousand blessings ever challenging.

Church attendance offers us something steadfast to hold on to. It is our best bulwark in these days of confusion.

Carolyn Kotrla Receives Award At Rogers School

ROGERS — Carolyn Joyce Kotrla is Homemaker of Tomorrow for Rogers High School in the 1963 Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow.

Having achieved the highest score in a knowledge and attitude test given senior girls December 4, she now is eligible, along with winners from other high schools, for the title of Texas Homemaker of Tomorrow.

Carolyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kotrla of Route 3, Temple and has attended Rogers High School from the ninth grade. She is president of the Medical Careers Club in school and is active in various student affairs. She plans to attend Temple Junior College after graduating from high school.

The State Homemaker of Tomorrow is awarded a $1,500 scholarship by General Mills, sponsor of the program. The runner - up receives a $500 scholarship. The school of each state Homemaker of Tomorrow is awarded a complete set of Encyclopedia Britannica.

New Generating Unit Scheduled

A large new generating unit capability of 500,000 kilowatts will be built by Texas Power & Light Company at Stryker Creek, northwest of Nacogdoches.

W. W. Lynch, president of TP&L said the new facility will house the world's largest single - shaft turbine generator and will be constructed adjacent to the present TP&L 125,000 kilowatt generating unit now in service at the site.

Lynch said it will be gas - fired and be in operation by the summer of 1966. Engineering and design work is under way and construction will begin in late 1963 he reported. About 8 employees will operate the unit when it is completed.

Lake Stryker, with 2,300 surface acres, was constructed by the Angelina and Nacogdoches Water District No. 1. A contract with TP&L covering water to be used in operating the first steam power plant at the site enabled the water district to build a dam and form Lake Stryker in 1957.

TP&L officials stated the anticipated growth of the East Texas area in future years brought the decision to construct the plant at Stryker Creek. They added it can be located here with a minimum of transmission investment and maximum effectiveness.

The unit's large turbine generator will weigh 2½ million pounds, will be 134 feet in length and will use 3,650,000 pounds of steam per hour.

To illustrate the size of the unit, Lynch said in a 24 - hour period it could generate enough electricity to supply the average persent day electrical needs of one residence in th TP&L service area for approximately 3,500 years. He added that it could produce enough electricity to serve the present electrical needs of a city approximately six times the size of Tyler.

The new unit will be tied into the transmission line system which serves the entire TP&L service area and also will be joined to the new 345,000 volt transmission line now being constructed by TP&L and three other Texas investor - owned electric companies.

Aluminum Output Sets '62 Record

Production of Primary aluminum in the United States set a record in 1962.

Output by the nation's seven primary producers reached 2,117,945 short tons during the 12 - month period, according to figures compiled and released today by The Aluminum Association. The total is 103,447 tons, or 5.1 per cent, higher than the previous peak year of 1960 when 2,014,498 tons of aluminum were produced and 214,232 tons, or 11.3 per cent, over 1961.

Production of 182,440 tons of the versatilemetal in December brought production totals for the fourth quarter to 547,310 tons, a record for any quarter, the association said.

Aluminum Company of America, Anaconda Aluminum Company, Harvey Aluminum (Incorporated), Kaiser Aluminum & Chemical Corp., Olin Mathieson Chemical Corp., Revere Cooper and Brass Inc., and Reynolds Metals Company are the seven U. S. producing companies. Olin and Revere produce primary aluminum through a jointly - owned subsidiary, Ormet Corporation.

PINE LUMBER

Southern yellow pine lumber, a lot is produced in Texas, has been shown by U. S. Department of Agriculture's Forestry Products Laboratory tests to be the strongest wood for construction purposes. Bill Smith, extension forester, recommends it for any and all construction.
